

Altice completes acquisition of Orange Dominicana

April 9, 2014: Altice S.A. (Euronext: ATC) today announces that it has completed the previously announced acquisition of Orange Dominicana SA (“ODO”) for approximately $1.4bn (€1.0bn).

ODO is a mobile operator in the Dominican Republic with 3.3m mobile subscribers. In 2013, it had revenue of €446m and EBITDA of €173m.

The acquisition of ODO, following the acquisition of cable operator Tricom in March, fits perfectly with Altice’s strategy of combining both fixed and mobile assets in order to offer quadruple-play services over state-of-the-art communication networks.

This also strengthens Altice’s presence in the Caribbean where it already offers pay-TV, broadband and mobile services in Martinique, Guadeloupe and French Guyana.
